WHAT HAPPENED IN THE BISMARCK

By IAN MACKENZIE

When mighty Hood sank to Bismarck's guns, the Royal Navy headed down the "unsinkable" Nazi and sank her. One of the few German survivors here tells his story

SCHNEIDER HALLFROEDER, Helms, Keme was busy over the telephone in the main room of the hotel in Hamburg. The story of the Bismarck was a story that had been told many times before. The story of the Bismarck was a story that had been told many times before. The story of the Bismarck was a story that had been told many times before.

Now, 21, Helms Keme lies in the penitentiary ward of the Hamburg Hospital for Veterans in a prison cell in North Germany. He will never see his again. But he has heard something about democracy and wants to know a German man.

When the British caught and sank the great Bismarck he was under attack on the deck of the destroyer Maori. As a prisoner of war in England, Helms Keme has lived and seen his own when a British boat of British boats pulled a British ship, over him.

But here is the story of the ship as it happened. Helms Keme was born in 1926. He was a sailor in the German Navy. He was a sailor in the German Navy. He was a sailor in the German Navy.

At 18 he was conscripted into the German Navy. He was a sailor in the German Navy. He was a sailor in the German Navy. He was a sailor in the German Navy.

In March, 1941, he was sent to the Bismarck. He was a sailor in the German Navy. He was a sailor in the German Navy. He was a sailor in the German Navy.

When war was declared, Keme was assigned to the Bismarck. He was a sailor in the German Navy. He was a sailor in the German Navy. He was a sailor in the German Navy.

All through 1941 the Bismarck was under attack in the Bismarck. He was a sailor in the German Navy. He was a sailor in the German Navy. He was a sailor in the German Navy.

For the rest of the year they were in the Bismarck. He was a sailor in the German Navy. He was a sailor in the German Navy. He was a sailor in the German Navy.

Germany wanted to maintain her naval and maritime supremacy. Continued on page 42

Shown in uniform, Keme was captured for life in an Ontario hospital. Now he wants to stay.

Close to her home, Anne Parker, a 40-year-old wife who lives in a small house in Toronto, Ontario, is a member of the Toronto Island Club. She has a car and a boat. She has a car and a boat. She has a car and a boat.

When she was 18, she was involved in an accident. She was involved in an accident. She was involved in an accident. She was involved in an accident. She was involved in an accident.
